

Become a member of the Swiss Appenzell Cattle Dog Club!

General aims and responsibilities of the club

- Encourage the breeding of the Appenzell Cattle Dog as well as its use as a working dog. Enable contact between breeders and lovers of this race.
- Pass on information and knowledge about breeding, acquiring, owning and caring for as well as upbringing and training of this breed.
- Increase awareness of the Appenzell Cattle Dog and maintain contact with clubs from abroad.

The club has existed, in accordance with Swiss laws, since 1906 for the afore mentioned purposes. It is a section of the Swiss Cynological Association. To be accepted as a voting member of the club you have to be 18 years old at the least.

As a member you will profit from reduced breeding fees. Your subscription enhances the club in its aim to preserve a Swiss cultural asset.

Our printed club information called «Bläss» informs three or four times a year about breeding and club activities.

Membership Declaration

I / we wish to join the Swiss Appenzell Cattle Dog Club.

Yearly membership fees:

Single member	CHF	80.00	Euro	80.00
Family	CHF	120.00	Euro	120.00
Juristic person	CHF	200.00	Euro	200.00

First name / Surname

Personal identification number Amicus

For family membership: additional first name / surname

Profession

Address

ZIP / City

Phone / E-Mail

Date

Signature

Send to: Noam Shahor, Chüeweid 1, 8634 Hombrechtikon, Switzerland, shahornoamscas@gmail.com